West Point Museum Research Data

The West Point Museum is going to be producing between 10TB and 14TB of data. These files will consist of Tif archive images as well as PDFa scans of the Registrars archive.

The Metadata will be MARC in order to be crosswalked to ContentDM for publishing online.

The data could be made available publically immediately with the credit line "From the Collections of the West Point Museum." The Registrar's Archive can be made available within a year of ingest with the caveat that all Personally Identifiable Information be excluded.
